Applications are acknowledged once received by the site coordinator by email.

Applicants' names are kept on file on a waiting list and dealt with in strict date order of receipt of application. You can visit the website to check the time period in which applications are being allocated.

Plots are offered to next available applicant, and they can select either Hamilton Lane or Pound Lane or ask for either site.

The site coordinator will send a maximum of 3 emails and one text message. No response after this will mean they go onto the next person. Please check your acknowledgement email has gone to your inbox and not spam and that the email you have provided is correct.

Plot sizes vary and all are offered as soon as they become vacant.

There is an email group for waiting list applicants that is used for contact.
